NEWESD 101 Launches Career Planning Website

SPOKANE, WA – This month, NEWESD101 launched School Careers Northeast, a career planning website for school employers and job seekers. A portal to all things employment for education professionals, this site provides a one-stop spot for school districts, private schools and charter schools encompassing northeast Washington's seven-county region to post open positions and for job seekers everywhere to identify school career opportunities.

"NEWESD 101 decided to launch this portal in response to helping school districts across our region fill a significant amount of open positions. Our agency takes great pride in providing opportunities for career growth and development," said NEWESD 101 Superintendent Robert Roettger. "This website is an excellent place to start if you are seeking a career in education in northeast Washington."

The School Careers Northeast website provides services and information for job seekers and school employers alike. Following is a breakdown of different information and services offered through the portal:

- Job Seekers
  - Job Searches & Alerts
  - Resumes & Cover Letters
  - Career Planning (Advice, Insights, Coaching)
  - Interviewing Tips
  - Company Directory
  - View Events
  - Career Growth & News
- School Employers
  - Post a Job
  - Review Candidates
  - Create Templates
  - Create Profiles
  - View Events
  - Career Growth & News

"Over the past few months, our team has been working to add this service and we are thrilled to finally be able to launch it for our community," said Roettger. "Now, more than ever, our districts are in need of more individuals committed to serving and supporting education and School Careers Northeast is one more way to connect qualified candidates with regional school employers."
