

Ducks Not In A Row

Student: Erin Brothers
District: Pullman School District
School: Pullman High School
Instructor: Olivia Keske

Medium: Oil Pastel and Marker

Artist Statement

To get the viewer to look around the piece and not focus on a singular duck, I used a unique composition. The ducks are scattered and seen at various angles. The background, blended oil pastels create an interesting pattern for the viewer to rest their eyes on. This piece symbolizes the idea of being present, as the ducks are not moving like crazy or all going a specific direction. They are just there, without a worry in the world.

Status: Sell