"We gather to remember the victims of violence, not only the community but throughout the state, throughout the country, and throughout the world," Steinberg said. Americans can be affected by the same polarization that has affected U.S. politics over the years. Still, it's clear the man has ways to go before it comes up to "We, the people" by actively including all Americans.

Coming out

Student: Madison Stojevich
District: Mead School District
School: Mt. Spokane High School
Instructor: Angelika Wilson-Wipp

Medium: Chalk Pastel

Artist Statement

Using chalk pastel, the piece shows the beauty of coming out, even if it is a scary process. With symbolism behind each part of the piece, it can give many different meanings to certain people looking for something to relate to. What is shown is how terrifying yet beautiful coming out can be, because it is something that many fear.
