

Human Duality

Student: Bee Pope
District: Reardan-Edwall School District
School: Reardan High School
Instructor: Marty DeWalt

Medium: Watercolor

Artist Statement

In life people will try to tear you apart. They rip out and analyze each aspect to make you one thing that's easy to swallow, to make you purely evil or purely good so you're easier to understand. This piece is a cry out against this. Duality is a part of human nature, where good and evil coincide. So, when hands push and pull against your skin, you will not separate because you're still human.

Status: Exhibit only