

Wasted Potential

Student: Alyssa Sutton
District: Central Valley School District
School: Central Valley High School
Instructor: Rebekah Wilkins-Pepiton

Medium: Acrylic Paint on Canvas

Artist Statement

My sustained investigation asks how people handle grief. This piece specifically touches on how in the depression stage people may begin to feel stuck and numb to the world. Forgetting how much untapped potential there is to grow.

Status: Exhibit only