Artist Statement

This piece was done based on my childhood. I want people to keep their hands to themselves. I enjoy incorporating myself and my messiness when I create things. It's never perfect, realistic, or pretty. I shade in purples and yellows due to being color blind, as you can see in this piece. I believe color is necessary when painting, the thought behind this piece was inspired by would've could've should've by Taylor Swift. You can feel the vulnerability, here I am stripped down, lack of innocence, and so naive. Look at me. Look away. Keep your hands off me.
