

Death by Knowledge

Student: May Stevens

District: Central Valley School District

School: Central Valley High School

Instructor: Rebekah Wilkins-Pepiton

Medium: Glass and Paint

Artist Statement

This piece is based off the Norse god Mimir who was beheaded and thrown into a pool of knowledge. Represents the endless search for knowledge and the drowning of student in it.

The retelling of stories is an indication to learn and follow the warnings of others endings.

Status: Exhibit only