Artist Statement

My artwork explores a variety of ideas, mediums, and the adventure through creativity. When creating artwork, I like to mix up the ideas on every piece. I usually do not stick with the same sense of style. I enjoy exploring realism, surrealism, and the own ideas in my head.

When starting a piece, I like to go in not knowing what I'm about to create. Once starting, I draw whatever comes to my head or inspires me in the moment. From there, I'll decide on the different techniques and themes I'd like to incorporate.

Typically when painting with brushes I like to create a sense of realism. In some cases, I'll mix that idea with something like pastels or chalk pastels. I'll even bring that idea and texture into a piece that could be digital.

I will never know how I'll be starting a piece or ending it. It's all about the creativity and inspiration that comes to your mind at that moment.
