Artist Statement

This piece I created during October of last year using a ball point pen. I am very confident in it, as it is one of my favorites, being a one line "scribble drawing". This means that while in the making of the piece, I didn't take my pen off the paper. That is some reason why I find this piece to be very unique, including the depth and values which contrast against the paper and allow a pleasing way to evoke emotions and possibly satisfaction for the viewer.
