

The Oscar goes to ... Pullman High School

The results have been tabulated, verified and – better than the Academy Awards – the correct envelope has been passed: Pullman High School is the region’s 2017 Knowledge Bowl champion.

The Greyhounds captured the overall title, and top honors in the 2A classification, in last’s week’s annual competition at Whitworth University.

Knowledge Bowl is an academic competition posing oral and written questions drawn from secondary curriculum areas including math, science, history, language, literature, music, geography and current events. The results:

Overall:

- 1st place Pullman
- 2nd place Saint George’s
- 3rd place East Valley
- 4th place Lakeside
- 5th place Lewis & Clark
- 6th place Central Valley
- 7th place Wilbur-Creston
- 8th place Garfield-Palouse
- 9th place North Central

Schools qualifying for the state competition on March 18 at Arlington High School:

- |    |   |    |   |
|----|---|----|---|
| 4A | Lewis and ClarkCentral Valley                                 | 2A | PullmanEast Valley  |
| 1A | LakesideColvilleMedical LakeFreeman                   | 2B | Saint George’sWilbur-CrestonNorthwest ChristianReardan-Edwall |
| 1B | Garfield-PalouseOdessaAlmira-Coulee-HartlineOakesdale |    |   |

Congratulations to Pullman and best of luck to all at state.

Story posted: March 3, 2017

For more information:

Steve Witter

(509) 789-3540

switter@esd101.net